

CHECKLIST FOR AN

Efficient and Effective Investment Committee

Investment committees are the backbone of the retirement plan and participants' success, both in the fiduciary process and financial wellbeing.

Meeting Minutes

- ✓ Review minutes from previous meeting and approve.
- ✓ Task a member to take notes during the meeting.

Objectively Review the Plan

- ✓ Define the goals of your company's workplace retirement plan.
- ✓ Review the effectiveness of the plan (participation, deferral, asset allocation).
- ✓ Discuss any changes that may affect the plan since the last review.

Evaluate Investments and Performance

- ✓ Confirm each committee member has read and understands the plan's Investment Policy Statement (IPS).
- ✓ Evaluate, review and benchmark the investments in accordance with the plan's IPS.
- ✓ Determine if investments should be kept, placed on a watch list or recommended for removal/replacement.
- ✓ Discuss 404(c) investment safe harbor categories (large cap, small cap, bond, money market and international fund offerings).
- ✓ Discuss the QDIA investment(s) and if it is a target date series, discuss if the portfolio is a "to" or "through" strategy.
- ✓ Provide relevant news and/or other important economic updates.

Review Participant Education and Financial Wellbeing

- Identify financial wellbeing metrics (participation, deferral rate, deferral types, loans, hardship withdrawals and asset allocation).
- Provide an update on last quarter's communication.
- Outline future communication initiatives.
- Discuss results of latest enrollment meeting and identify when the next enrollment meeting/date is available.
- Share the attendance results and questions asked at the last education meeting(s).
- Identify topics of interest and any opportunities for improvement for the next education meeting(s).
- Assign point person and schedule next educational session.
- Discuss additional ideas for improvement and how to enhance the plan for positive outcomes.

Review the Plan Operations

- Confirm service providers meet the needs of the plan. If necessary, review terms of service to confirm value and fee alignment.
- Benchmark and review fees, expenses and experience to determine value.
- Provide an update on plan design evaluation, timely contributions, plan amendment requirements and/or additional administrative settlor functions. If necessary, invite the plan's TPA to join the meeting to provide procedural updates.
- Confirm with plan's administrator that procedure prudence is being adhered to.

Next Steps

- Review meeting minutes and acknowledge action steps.
 - Assign tasks to committee members, service providers and/or other personnel.
 - Schedule the next committee review meeting.
